CONGRESS ADJOURNS

The Extraordinary Session Is at an End.

THE LAST DAY'S SESSION.

A Wrangle Between the Senate and House Prevents the Passage of the General Deficiency Bill and the Bill to Pay Clerks and Employees From Now Until December 4.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—At 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon the extraordinary session of the Fifty-third congress, after being in session 87 days and three hours, adjourned without day.

A wrangle between the house and senate over an appropriation to pay the senate session employees for work done during the recess of the Fifty-first Congress in 1890 caused the failure of the general deficiency bill and the bill providing for the payment of clerks and employees during the adjournment interval between now and the convening of the regular session Dec. 4.

The senate was determined that this appropriation should be agreed to by the house with the alternative of sacrificing the deficiency bill, and Senator Cockrell, chairman of the appropriations committee, sent word that not a dollar of deficiency would be agreed to by the senate until the house accepted this amendment, which had been tacked on to the deficiency bill.

The final adjournment resolution had been passed and in this way the senate expected to force the house to yield. To make assurance doubly sure the senate also placed the same amendment on the bill providing pay for session employees and clerks to members during the recess and sent word that if their amendment was agreed to the deficiency bill would be released from conference, where it was being held as if in chancery by the senate.

Inasmuch as every member of the house was personally interested in the resolution to keep his clerk on the payroll during the recess they thought they held the whip hand but the plan was defeated by a filibuster inaugurated by Mr. Hutchinson of Texas. He was opposed to the original resolution to pay the employees of congress during the recess but was easily outgeneraled by the parliamentarians who opposed him.

When the resolution came back to the house, however, with the senate amendment on as a rider, it was about 3 o'clock. Mr. Hutchinson saw that if he could hold the house at bay for the space of but a few minutes the adjournment would give him victory. The senate was immediately notified of the situation in the house, and a resolution was hurriedly passed extending the time of adjournment to 4:30, but the effort came too late.

While the house adjourned at 3 o'clock to the second, the senate also adjourned by resolution simultaneously did not in reality adjourn until seven minutes later.

CRANKS IN PITTSBURG.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—The police are having no end of trouble with cranks who threaten to take human life. Three are now locked up in the Central station and the police are on the lookout for five others who have been writing threatening letters.

Of the three under arrest, W. N. Bates, a traveling agent, is the most desperate. He was recently discharged from his position and since then his former employer has been annoyed by letters threatening death if he is not reinstated. When arrested Bates had a large pistol and a blackthorn cane. He said he had been driven to desperate methods because he had no work.

The second crank is a newspaper man, who gave the name of Mike O'Brien. He went to The Times office and when refused the position of editor, pulled a pistol and threatened to clean out the office. He was arrested before he did any damage.

John McGarry, the third crank, gave himself up, saying he was out of work and starving and he was afraid he would kill someone.

BLASTING ACCIDENT.

Three Men Badly Injured—One Fatally.

SOUTH PEABODY, Mass., Nov. 4.—A terrible blasting accident took place here last night at the Dearborn Lodge, in which three persons were badly injured, one fatally. Five men were at work in the big blast, and four holes had been prepared and filled with one keg of powder. The first blast did not do the work well, and the men started to refill the holes with powder.

While engaged in the work there was a big explosion and they were thrown in all directions. Only two escaped injury. The three injured are: John De Courcy, married.

Edward De Courcy, his brother, married.

James E. Roswell.

Edward De Courcy was picked up unconscious and remained in that condition until a late hour last night. He will probably die.

Will Break Up the Gang.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—Leo C. Lesquereux, the young business man under arrest for receiving stolen goods, will, it is said, turn state's evidence, and the result will be the breaking up of a gang of car robbers whose operations extend over many years.

EXPRESS HELD UP.

The Conductor Shot While Trying to Protect His Train.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 4.—Fast express train No. 51 of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern, known as the Cannon Ball, due here at 2:10 a. m., was held up and robbed by seven masked men at Oliphant, Ark., seven miles north of Newport, at 10 o'clock last night. Passenger Conductor J. P. McNally was shot and killed while protecting his train.

Oliphant is a small lumber town of about 800 inhabitants, situated in a lonely timber district in White county. When train No. 51 stopped at the station, two men jumped on the engine and, pointing revolvers at the engineer and fireman, ordered them to keep still, threatening to blow their brains out if they moved a muscle. The other five men surrounded the expresscar, the door of which was open, and at once began firing a wicked fusillade from their revolvers.

Conductor J. P. McNally drew his revolver and returned the robbers' fire, but before he had succeeded in wounding any of them, he was shot and killed. The robbers then entered the expresscar, overpowered the messenger and looted the car.

Leaving two men to guard the trainmen the other robbers proceeded to rob the passengers. They entered the coaches and sleepers, and at the point of a revolver relieved all the passengers of their valuables. They then left with a parting volley, taking a northerly direction.

A telegram was at once sent to the sheriff at Newport, who formed a posse and started in pursuit.

An engine was dispatched to Augusta for bloodhounds. Telegrams were quickly sent to Little Rock for assistance and a special train left about 1 a. m., carrying a posse of officers and a pack of bloodhounds.

The railroad people have no idea as to the amount of money secured by the robbers. General Superintendent Peck and Division Superintendent Rose of the Iron Mountain, who are in Memphis, have been notified of the robbery by telegraph and have instructed the railroad people here to offer a large reward for the arrest of the robbers.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Thursday, November 30, Set Apart by the President as a Special Day of Praise.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The president has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

By the President of the United States of America: A Proclamation.

While the American people should every day remember with praise and thanksgiving the divine goodness and mercy which have followed them since their beginning as a nation, it is fitting that one day in each year should be especially devoted to the contemplation of the blessing we have received from the hand of God, and to the acknowledgment of His loving kindness.

Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to be kept and observed by all the people of our land. On that day let us forego our ordinary work and employments, and assemble in our usual places of worship where we may recall all that God has done for us, and where from grateful hearts our united tribute of praise and song may reach the throne of grace. Let the reunion of kindred and social meeting of friends lend cheer and enjoyment to the duty, and let generous gifts of charity for the relief of the poor and needy prove the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the President: WALTER Q. GRESHAM, Secretary of State.

MONTANA'S SILVER STATUE.

An Attempt Made to Steal It While in Transit to New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A morning paper has the following: The celebrated Montana silver statue arrived last night at the Grand Central depot from Chicago.

The news that Ada Rehan's counterfeit in silver was enroute was spread far and wide. While passing through the Montezuma swamp, near Rochester, three highwaymen boarded the train at 10:15 o'clock. The men jumped on the platform and attempted to force the car open where the statue lay.

A messenger on the train was about to open the door of the expresscar when the engineer prevented him. The robbers, thus baffled, sprang off the train and made no further attempt to steal the statue, which, to say the least, would be a very heavy one.

Won on a Foul.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—Paddy Purtell, the "Saginaw Kid," and George Fitzgerald of St. Louis, middleweights, fought here last night for a purse of $600. The "Kid" showed far more science than Fitzgerald and gave him severe punishment. Fitzgerald repeatedly fouled him, and in the sixth round the referee gave the fight to Purtell on a foul. Fitz had grasped Purtell by the throat and was choking him to death when the decision was given.

Resuming Work.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—Chamber's Extensive windowglass tank factory at Kensington, will resume operations at the glassworkers scale. The factory has been closed several months on account of a strike, and is one of three plants where the terms of the employees were finally conceded. The resumption will give employment to several hundred men. The large Jeanette plant is also preparing to resume operations.

REVIEW OF TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Business Report.

CONFIDENCE BEING RESTORED.

The Repeal of the Silver Purchasing Act Has Already Had Its Good Effect. Abundance of Money at Speculative Centers—A Brighter Prospect in the Near Future.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The repeal of the silver purchase act does good already. The business world in every part of the country reckons it helpful and the tone of trade is more confident. It is hardly the time as yet for the effects to be felt to any great extent in manufactures, but bankers are more liberal in accommodations and merchants more hopeful in purchase.

It is well to remember that the act will do less good than if it had been passed early in the spring, or without delay after congress assembled. It can not now prevent several thousand failures which have already occurred, nor relieve creditors from resulting embarrassments. It can not now save from loss a multitude of manufacturing establishments which have closed because the future seemed uncertain. It will go far to restore business confidence which was much needed but many may expect from the measure larger results than can at this late day be realized.

The action of congress had less visible influence upon speculative markets for products, in part because foreign markets obstinately refused to accept the higher valuations which speculators here tried to establish. Though people across the water award unstinted praises to those who secured the passage of the repeal bill, there is not much disposition to pay higher prices on that account for wheat or cotton.

In view of the great abundance of money at speculative centers, the weakness of markets is more significant. Industries could not be expected to make any material gain as yet, in consequence of no financial conditions, but the demand for textile products has to some extent improved.

The metal working industries manifest little gain as yet. The minor metals are weaker on the whole, though speculation lifted lead a trifle.

The volume of domestic trade gains but little, exchanges outside New York being 22.96 per cent lower than last year for the week. The exports of products for the past month have been about $1,000,000 larger than last year, while imports have been about $19,400,000 smaller, which indicates an excess of exports of $90,000,000 or more for the month.

The railroads have been doing a little better, but returns do not yet come up to those of last year.

Failures for the week number 358 in the United States against 238 last year, and 28 in Canada against 31 last year. Only five concerns failed, with liabilities exceeding $100,000 each. The aggregate of liabilities for the week ending Oct. 26, was larger than of late, amounting to $7,400,000 against $5,800,000 for the previous week.

BUSINESS FAILURES

Of the Present Year Compared With the Past Ten Years.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A glance at a compilation of Bradstreets for the last 11 years, showing the business failures and the assets and liabilities for that time, will afford an idea of the magnitude of this year's disasters:

	No. of Failures.	Assets.	Liabilities.
1883.....	4,335	$120,387,668	$153,227,546
1892.....	2,037	10,274,595	20,436,250
1891.....	2,329	23,604,534	46,441,328
1890.....	2,072	14,425,596	29,673,988
1889.....	2,416	17,948,054	34,343,807
1888.....	2,078	9,814,806	18,954,369
1887.....	1,886	18,902,887	35,282,328
1886.....	2,057	11,887,739	23,869,213
1885.....	2,317	10,960,395	22,405,853
1884.....	2,853	37,723,868	71,846,800
1883.....	2,062	23,375,331	49,460,157

The conclusion seems warranted that the sitting out of the tares has been pretty general in 1893, leaving little but the wheat. If this conclusion is the correct one, now that the country is on a firm and financial basis the immediate outlook would seem most hopeful.

PRENDERGAST'S TRIAL.

It Will Be Begun on Monday and Will Be of Short Duration.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The trial of Prendergast, the murderer of Mayor Harrison, is on the criminal court calendar Monday next and the case will probably be reached without much delay. Prendergast has no attorney yet. He says he will get one, but does not appear to be in haste about it. It is considered likely that Judge Dunne will be called upon to appoint an attorney to defend him.

Yesterday the prisoner kept inside his cell the greater part of the day to escape the scrutiny of the visiting throng. He was morose and gloomy and scowled as he read the stories of his cowardly conduct in Judge Horton's court of the previous day.

"The newspapers are against me," he remarked to a guard. "Of course I was a little nervous when I went before Judge Horton. I am not used to court business and there was such a crowd. There is no use of my trying to get fair treatment."

PIQUA, O., Nov. 4.—The motormen on the Miami Valley Electric railroad have been notified of a reduction of $1 per week in their wages. The company operates the road in this place and the extension to Troy.

CHASING COUNTERFEITERS.

They Were Discovered in a Cave by Hunters.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Nov. 4.—A gang of counterfeiters were surprised in their cave in the Laurel Hill mountains, about four miles from Waterford. They were discovered by three hunters named John and J. K. Rutter and George Shirley, who Thursday saw three men coming out of an old coal cave, each carrying a satchel.

The hunters called to them but they refused to stop and ran into the mountains in the direction of New Florence. The hunters opened fire on them, which the counterfeiters returned, but none of the shots took effect. The hunters then concluded to explore the cave, and were astonished to find a full kit of counterfeiters' tools, such as molds, etc., also about 100 pounds of wool, a keg of whiskey, etc.

They at once returned to Waterford and aroused the neighborhood, and a party started in hot pursuit. For several months past counterfeit money has been in circulation all through that section. The people are greatly excited.

Peculiar Contempt of Court Case.

TUCSON, Nov. 4.—The trial of John O. Dunbar and James McClintock, editors and publishers on the Phoenix Gazette, for alleged libel against Attorney General Heney, Acting Governor Bruce, Marshall Meade and Governor Hughes, has developed a sensation. The defendants petitioned for a change of venue and presented an affidavit that the presiding judge, Richard E. Sloan, had been closeted for hours with Rochester Ford, the law partner of Attorney General Heney. Judge Sloan and Ford declared the charge absolutely false, and it developed that ex-Judge William H. Barnes had prepared the affidavit. Judge Sloan committed Editor Dunbar and ex-Judge Barnes to the county jail for 10 days for contempt.

National Academy of Sciences.

ALBANY, Nov. 4.—On Tuesday next in this city the National Academy of Science will hold its meeting to prepare its annual report for presentation to the government. The occasion will also mark the opening of the new Dudley observatory which, it is expected, will be completed at that time. The Academy of Science was incorporated by an act of congress during the administration of President Lincoln. It is under the control of the government and is compelled by law to make a report each year to congress, in which is embodied papers and treatises upon the latest discoveries and developments in science. All the sessions will be held in the assembly parlor, in the state capitol, and will continue for three days.

A Swell Wedding.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—It is understood in society circles that the marriage of Miss Isabelle Murphy, daughter of the late Daniel T. Murphy of San Francisco, to Senor Don Louis Dominguez, son of the Argentine minister to England, will be solemnized during the second week in December, but whether it will take place in this city or London, has not yet been decided. Miss Murphy's sister Helen, the famous beauty, was married last month to the only brother of the groom-elect. Thus two American girls of fortune unite their fortunes with two South American brothers of wealth and high station.

Nothing But Gold.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—A. Blue, government director of the bureau of mines, has just returned from a visit to the mining regions north of Lake Huron. He says the Ophir gold mine, near the old village of Bruce Mines, owned by wealthy New York and western capitalists, is the richest in the world. A new mill, that has been running a year at this mine, is turning out gold at the rate of $60,000 a month, and the proprietors have piled upon their dump ore valued at millions of dollars. Blue says the rock is yellow with gold, and in every direction there are showings of the mineral.

Killed at Play.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Maney Webber, 9 years old, met with a terrible death. He was in the kitchen of his home blowing peas through a bean-blower at his father, George Webber. In running about after Mr. Webber the boy accidentally fell over a chair. He had the bean-blower in his mouth at the time and fell upon it. The sharp tin was forced down the boy's throat and came out of the back of his neck. A physician was called, but he could do nothing to stop the flow of blood, and an artery had been penetrated, and after suffering for nearly two hours the boy died.

A Great Gun.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—At Sandy Hook proving ground the Brown segmental 5-inch wire gun broke the world's record. During the government test at the proving ground the following result was obtained: With 30 pounds of the Leonard smokeless powder and a half-pound shot, a muzzle velocity of 3,120 feet per second, with a breeze pressure of 53,500 pounds per square inch, was obtained. The velocity obtained would, with armor-piercing projectiles, have been sufficient to penetrate about 19 inches of wrought iron, or 13 inches of steel armor.

Prepared For the Robbers.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 4.—Two bandits attempted to board the northbound express train at Coal Creek, on the Ohio division of the East Tennessee train last night. One of the robbers is Jim Smith, who was mortally wounded. The authorities for the road had information that the robbery would be attempted and a special force of armed men was on the expresscar for their reception. Smith will die, and the condition of the other robber is not known.

WAR VESSEL SUNK.

A Very Heavy Loss of Life Reported.

TWO DIFFERENT ACCOUNTS.

One of Them Places the Drowned at Thirteen Hundred While the Other One Gives the Number at Six Hundred—The Disaster Occurred Off the Coast of Brazil.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Morning Leader has the following special from Lisbon:

A telegram from Buenos Ayres says that the insurgent warship Republica ran into and sunk the transport Rio de Janeiro, which was on her way from Rio Grande do Sul to Rio de Janeiro with troops for President Peixoto. Thirteen hundred of the troops were drowned.

A dispatch to The Times from Rio Janeiro, received on Nov. 1, contained the information that the Republica had rammed the Rio de Janeiro, and that 500 out of 1,100 troops on board were drowned. This dispatch also said that Admiral Mello confirmed the truth of this report.

BLOODY BATTLE.

Two Officers Have a Tough Time Arresting a Man.

RUSHVILLE, Ill., Nov. 4.—A bloody battle occurred last night at the residence of William Knouse in Bainbridge township. Officers B. H. Ingles and Charles Louden of this city went there to arrest Charles Robertson. A dance was going on when they arrived and a general fight followed, the girls flying from the house. Ingles was stabbed in the back and face several times and beat over the head with a stove leg.

Louden, to save their lives, used his revolver, fatally wounding Seth Hatfield and seriously injuring Grover Rittenhouse and Alex. Robertson. Charles Robertson attempted to kill Louden, but his revolver missed fire. Both officers, though seriously injured, finally overpowered Robertson and his friends and captured them.

Negligent Flagman.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 4.—The second section of a Nickel Plate passenger train, eastbound, ran into the rear end of the second section of a freight train near Silver Creek, N. Y. Engineer William Huffman and Fireman George Briggs of the passenger train jumped and both were painfully but not seriously hurt. None of the passengers were injured beyond a slight shaking up. The accident was caused by negligence on the part of the flagman of the freight train.

The Pin Gave Way.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 4.—A coupling pin broke and a train of empty cars of the Campbell's Creek Coal company ran down into the motor at the place, slightly injuring Fayette Turner, the motorman, and fatally hurting George Osewich, a workman who was riding on the train. He was caught under the cars. Four ribs were broken, and his back was injured so badly that he can not recover.

Coughlin Tried Again.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The second trial of Daniel Coughlin, the ex-detective charged with complicity in the Cronin murder, began in Judge Tuthill's court. Before a large crowd of spectators the prisoner appeared and entered a plea of "not guilty." The selection of a jury was at once begun. Among the spectators were the wife and aged father of the prisoner and many of his old-time friends.

Brain Fever Threatened.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Semple, who attempted suicide Tuesday night, expressed a desire to see the body of her boy who died from poison Wednesday morning. On being carried into the room where it lay awaiting burial, she fainted and has been in a hysterical condition ever since. She is threatened with brain fever.

Prominent Citizen Gone.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 4.—Mr. D. M. Griffith died yesterday after a lingering illness of several months at the age of 68 years. He was one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens of Owensboro, having been connected with every interest looking toward the advancement and prosperity of the community.

General Strike Ordered.

CAIRO, Ill., Nov. 4.—General Superintendent Vanwinkle of the Big Four railroad was in consultation with the switchmen, yardmen and engineers of this place, and came to no agreement as regards the adjustment of the trouble. A general strike of all trainmen and switchmen of the Cairo division has been ordered.

One Among Thousands.

CRESTON, Ia., Nov. 4.—Roy Longwell, who was serving a six months sentence in the county jail and made his escape about 10 days ago, returned to the jail last night. He says after his escape he went to Chicago. After seeing the sights at the world's fair he returned to serve out his term.

Died From Coughing.

WABASH, Ind., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Coon Lines, aged 70, one of the oldest residents of Wabash county, died almost instantly at her home near Lafontaine. Seized with a violent fit of coughing, she burst a blood vessel in the abdomen, and died before any one could reach her.

WEATHER FORECAST.
Fair weather; slightly warmer; light winds.

A KANSAS paper, before us, says: "A Democrat is a Democrat 365 days in the year, and he votes his ticket like an Irishman takes his whisky—straight."

LINCOLN's rule of "never swapping horses while crossing a stream" is a good one. Stick to the Democratic party. It has never failed to do its duty in any hour or any emergency.

PAY no heed to the campaign prevaricator or his lame story. During the last week of a campaign the air is always full of idle statements—frequently without the least foundation. Give them no ear.

LET every Democrat come to the polls on next Tuesday and stand by his principles and the nominees of his party. Give no aid and comfort to the enemy by staying at home and neglecting this duty of a patriotic citizen.

THOMAS JEFFERSON: "Absolute acquiescence in the decisions of the majority—the vital principle of republics, from which there is no appeal but to force, the vital principle and immediate parent of despotism." That is Democracy, pure and simple.

THAT this Senatorial district is Democratic on a fair and square race every one at all acquainted with it in the past will admit, but this fact will not avail the Democratic party one iota unless every man of that party goes to the polls on election day and votes for the party's nominee.

WE have received the first number of the "Fleming News," a lively Democratic paper published at Flemingsburg by James F. Hinton. It is chock full of good local matter and preaches the good old Democracy in a convincing manner. Keep the X mark under the rooster's feet above the Democratic column and you are all right, Brother Hinton.

THIS Senatorial district and Mason County are entitled to a Democratic Senator and Representative, for the plain and simple reason that a majority of the voters of the district and county are Democratic, and the majority rules in this country. There is no reason then why the wishes of the majority should not obtain if the Democrats only do their plain duty on election day.

WHILE Governor McKinley was making his little tariff speech at Zanesville, an old gray-headed man and a life-long Republican who had served in the same regiment with the Governor, arose and asked why, if the foreigner pays the tax, did he provide in his bill for the payment of some $12,000,000 annually to the 1,300 sugar planters of Louisiana in lieu of the tariff tax removed. Mr. McKinley hemmed and hawed considerably, but the old gentleman pressed the question and the audience, seeing McKinley's embarrassment, began calling "Put him out. The old man said: "It is not necessary to put me out. I have always been a Republican and I thought the Governor could give me a satisfactory answer. As he cannot, I will go out of my own accord," and he went.

OUR REPUBLICAN FRIENDS.

IT pleases our Republican friends to repudiate all responsibility for the existing condition of affairs, though the legislation which has brought the nation to the verge of bankruptcy is Republican legislation, and is still unaltered and effective.

Two great measures stand as memorials of Republican ascendancy; one is the Sherman act; one is the McKinley act.

One fact in regard to the treasury stood out above all others during the Presidential campaign of 1892; it was this:

When Mr. Cleveland retired in 1889 he left a surplus of $100,000,000; in three years of Republican misrule, this sum, in addition to extraordinary revenues, had been squandered, and fixed appropriations made entailing increased taxation.

The deadlock in the Senate was made possible because the Republicans packed that body with Western mining camps to prevent a repeal of the McKinley act.

In the face of these facts Republican editors and orators say that it is the ascendancy of the Democratic party which brought upon us recent financial disasters.—Louisville Post.

DO YOUR DUTY.

Every Democrat is urged to go to the polls early next Tuesday and put the cross-mark (X) under the rooster's feet in the large square at the top of the first column. Vote promptly and quickly without taking time to scratch, for the rooster will do all the scratching necessary. This is no time to waver in your fealty to the Democratic party. If the late primary left any sores let them be healed by Tuesday. Every person can not have his choice always, and the only good rule of conduct in politics, as well as all things else, is to gracefully submit to the will of the majority when formally expressed according to the usages of the nominating power.

Hon. A. P. Gooding for Senator, and Hon. Walter Matthews for Representative are entitled to every Democratic vote and are deserving of your support. If you voted in the primary you have no right to refuse them your suffrage now, as a loyal citizen you will not. If you did not vote in the primary you were remiss in your obligation to your party, and should hasten to atone for your failure by voting early next Tuesday for Gooding and Matthews, the successful nominees. They are worthy of your vote and expect it. You do them as well as yourself an injustice if you fail or refuse to aid them now. Their opponents are not one whit better qualified than they, and have no claim to your suffrage. Democrats are surely not so fickle now as to turn their backs on last November's vote that swelled in grand majorities from the lakes to the gulf and from ocean to ocean.

Cleveland and Carlisle and Voorhees and Wilson need your approving endorsement of the stand they have taken, and you ought now to hold up their hands. You can expect nothing from your enemy, the Republicans; you may expect something from your friend, the Democracy. So if you are not already in sympathy and accord with your standard bearers, fall in quickly and give courage and confidence to Gooding and Matthews by coming out on the side of Democracy.

Put your cross (X) in the rooster square and let it go at that.

THE only cause for alarm is not that Democrats are not going to sustain their party nominees, but that a sufficient number may stay away from the polls to jeopardize the result. Let every Democrat vote next Tuesday and all will come out right.

Breaking the Ice.

Referring to the appointment of J. D. Kehoe, of this city, the Memphis (Tenn.) Commercial says:

"Secretary Carlisle yesterday broke the ice which bound 200 barnacle Republican officials to the Government printing office. He obtained the appointment of J. D. Kehoe as foreman of the treasury branch printing office by insisting on the Republican Public Printer's removing one of his henchmen. This is the first important Democratic appointment which has been made by the Public Printer under this administration, and some importance is attached to it. There are employed herein some 3,500 persons, of which 200 are 'officials,' all being Republicans up to the date of Kehoe's appointment. Mr. Kehoe has been a member of the Kentucky Legislature, foreman of State printing office, twice delegated to the International Typographical Union, is well known throughout the South, including Memphis, and is a brother to the official stenographer of the National House of Representatives."

The National Union Printer, among other things, says:

"Mr. Kehoe, in addition, has been a member of the Kentucky Legislature, in charge of the State printing of that State, and is a brother of the stenographer of the House of Representatives. This being the first foremanship to pass into the hands of an individual with Democratic proclivities, this gentleman is characterized as 'the ice breaker,' and a deluge of that quality known as influence may be confidently predicted as battering at the doors of the P. P."

At a meeting of the Amazon Fire Company held last night the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months:

President—N. C. Rudy.
Vice President—W. A. Tolle.
Secretary—George C. Fleming.
Messengers—C. P. Austin.
Chief of Hose—W. H. Lynch.
Assistant—W. H. Davis.
Engineers—Louis Stickley, Taylor Conrad, Edward Tudor and Robert Dawson.
Chairman Standing Committee—J. G. Payne.

At the men's meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3 p. m., the subject, "Character Building" will be discussed. Come out and enjoy an hour of short spicy talks. Good music and excellent singing. The Y. M. C. A. has the hearty support of our citizens, they not only materially help but attend the meetings. You must remember this organization has the welfare of our young men at heart. God commands, so there can be no failure. Come out to-morrow. Mr. Stewart on cornet, Mr. Bailly on violin, Mr. Cady flute and Mr. Hoeflich organ.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

REV. R. G. WILDER, Princeton, N. J., says:—"I find nothing helps so much to keep me in working condition as Simmons Liver Regulator."

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS

If You Wish to Mark Your Ballot Right Next Tuesday.

Any person wishing to vote must enter the voting room and give his name and residence to the Clerk holding the ballots, who will give him one ballot, and if requested will explain the manner of voting.

The voter must then retire alone to one of the booths and prepare his ballot by making a cross-mark (X) with the black ink stencil found there, in the square opposite the name of the candidate of his choice.

In case of a question submitted to popular vote the cross-mark should be made against the "Yes" or "No" answer to be given.

Should the voter wish to vote a straight party ticket he shall stamp the cross-mark in the large square at the top of the column containing the device or emblem of his party, and his vote will then be counted for all the candidates of his party.

For instance, if the voter is a Democrat let him stamp the cross-mark (X) under the rooster's feet in the large square at the top of the first column and this will vote the Democratic ticket straight.

If a cross-mark be made in the large square containing the device of a party, and a cross-mark be made also in a different column in the square after the name of one or more candidates of a different party, the vote shall be counted for the candidates so marked and not for the candidates for the same office of the party so marked; but the vote shall be counted for all the other candidates on the ticket under the device first marked.

If the voter mark more names than there are persons to be elected to an office his vote shall not be counted for that office, or if it is impossible to determine his choice for an office his vote will not be counted for such office; but no ballot shall be rejected for any technical error if it is possible to determine the voters choice.

The voter may write in black pencil mark on the blank line on the ballot the name of any one for whom he wishes to vote and stamp the cross-mark in the square opposite on the right, but no printed name should be marked out.

A voter who declares on oath that he is blind, or cannot read the English language, or who from physical disability is unable to mark his ballot, may apply to the Clerk for assistance.

Before leaving the booth the voter shall fold his ballot so as to conceal how he voted, but disclosing the signatures of the County Clerk and the Clerk of the election endorsed on the back of the ballot.

The voter must not occupy the booth more than three minutes in marking his ballot. He must return his ballot properly folded to one of the Judges, who will tear off the secondary stub containing the voter's name and then drop the ballot in the ballot box.

The voter must then promptly leave the room and shall not re-enter it during said election.

If the voter by mistake spoils his ballot he must return it to the Clerk, who will give him one other ballot. If he does not vote a ballot he must return it to the Clerk. If he attempts to leave the room with a ballot he will be arrested and fined from $25 to $100.

Any person who shall have in his possession outside the election room any ballot, either genuine or counterfeit, during the election, shall be guilty of a felony and on conviction sent to the penitentiary from two to five years.

Any person who shall during the election, knowingly and willfully remove or destroy any of the supplies or other conveniences placed in the booth to enable the voter to prepare his ballot, or deface the cards printed for instruction, or shall destroy or remove any booth or other convenience, or shall attempt to induce any person to commit any of such acts, shall upon conviction be confined in the county jail from six to twelve months.

No person whatever shall do any electioneering on election day within fifty feet of the polls, and no election officer shall disclose to any one at any time how a voter has voted. No one shall show his ballot, after it is marked, to any one, nor shall any one examine such a ballot or solicit the voter to show same. Whoever shall violate these provisions shall on conviction be fined from $20 to $500, or imprisoned from ten days to six months, or both so fined and imprisoned.

No one shall sell, loan, give or furnish to any person on election day, either directly or indirectly, any intoxicating drink, under penalty of a fine from $25 to $50 for each offense.

Any person guilty of receiving a bribe for his vote, or for his services, or for his influence, shall be fined from $50 to $100, or imprisoned from ten to ninety days, or both fined and imprisoned, and be excluded from office and suffrage.

Any election officer who fails without good excuse to perform his duty as such in holding an election shall be fined from $25 to $500.

Any person who shall vote before he has resided in the State, county and precinct the time required by law, or before he has attained full age, or before he has been duly naturalized, shall be fined from $50 to $100, or imprisoned from ten to ninety days or both.

H. FICKLIN is a candidate for City Treasurer and solicits your support.

In such a city as Chicago there are already hundreds of cranks jealous of the notoriety achieved by the assassin of Mayor Harrison, and every day his trial lasts scores will be added to their number. There is no good reason why Fendegast should not have been disposed of before now; certainly there is none to gratify his being kept a week after the death of his victim. The life of Carter Harrison was of more value than a city full of such as the brute that deprived him of it, and it is sincerely to be hoped the country is not to have a repetition of the Cleveland trial which was a disgrace to a civilized people.

The great City of Chicago owes it to herself not less than to the memory of her distinguished Chief Magistrate to make short work of his brutal assassin.

A new form of marriage ceremony is practiced by a Georgia Justice of the Peace. He concludes as follows: "By the authority vested in me as an officer of the State of Georgia, which is sometimes called the Empire State of the South, by the fields of cotton that lie spread out in snowy whiteness about us, by the howl of the coon dog and the gourd vine, whose clinging tendrils will shade the entrance to your humble dwelling place, by the red and luscious heart of the watermelon, whose sweetness fills the heart with joy, by the heavens and earth, in the presence of witnesses, I pronounce you man and wife."

WALTER MATTHEWS.

The Democratic Nominee For Representative Sketched by the Courier-Journal.

Thursday's issue of the Courier-Journal published an excellent likeness of Walter Matthews, of Mayslick, the Democratic nominee for Representative. The Courier-Journal says: "He was born near Mayslick June 6, 1845. His parents, Walter and Hannah Matthews, came from England many years ago, and his father was born at Stratford on the Avon, within three doors of the house in which the immortal Shakespeare was born. At the age of seventeen he entered the Confederate army and remained until the war was ended. After the war he conducted a general store at Mayslick for some ten years, and then turned his attention to farming, which pursuit he has followed devotedly ever since, much of his time being occupied in raising and breeding fine cattle. He married the daughter of John S. Mitchell. This happy union has been blessed with six children—four boys and two girls. Mr. Matthews has been signally successful in all his undertakings, and to-day is one of the wealthy men of Mason County. He received only a common school education, but by continuous reading, study and observation, he is now one of the best educated men in the county and noted for general intelligence and knowledge on all subjects. He is truly a self-made and self-educated man, and in every way fitted and qualified to represent Mason County in the State Legislature. He has never held any office and was never before a candidate. He was nominated by a Democratic primary, defeating Jacob D. Riley, of Mayslick, and Squire O. N. Weaver, of Minerva. The Republicans have nominated Captain Hutchins, the well known Maysville attorney, to oppose him November 7, but the Democrats are united, and there is no doubt of Mr. Matthews' triumphant election at the polls."

PERSONAL.

Col. J. B. Noyes has returned from Chicago.

Mr. Tuce Willett has returned from the World's Fair.

Mr. James Fitch of Flemingsburg visited friends here yesterday.

Miss Mamie Richeson has returned from a pleasant visit to Winchester.

Mrs. Wiley Fyfe, of Tennessee, will shortly visit friends at Washington.

Mrs. Lizzie Mitchell Roff, of Mayslick, has returned from Wolfe County, much benefited by the varied mountain air and curative qualities of the iron-sulphate waters of Swango.

Mrs. James Claybrook and her bright little daughter, Mary Baxter, with Miss Annie Owens, of Washington, were the guests of Mrs. C. L. Arthur, of Shannon, last Friday. Mrs. Arthur's visitation to Swango was beneficial.

Returning from her fall vacation Miss Ida Roff gave a literary recital at Hazel Green, the chief town of Wolfe County. Everyone seemed delighted with the entertainment, which consisted of choice selections from the poets.

THE facts about the Cherokee Strip, which was the cause of such a rush at its opening, seem to be that it is a sterile strip of alkali land in most of its length, breadth and thickness. There may be some good tracts of land, but they are few and far between. Many of those who made such frantic endeavors to get there are now making just as frantic endeavors to get away.

PETER L. SCRAGGS, who died at Louisa, Ky., a few days ago, won national fame last summer by using a ticket to John Robinson's show at Catlettsburg, which he had purchased twenty years before when the show was there, to take his girl to the show. They had a quarrel before they got to the show and Peter went alone. He saved the other ticket, however, till last summer.

PREACHING at the M. E. Church to-morrow at 10:30 a. m. by Rev. T. W. Williamson, of Aberdeen, Ohio, and at 7 p. m. by the pastor. Topic for evening sermon, "A Few Reasons Why we Worship God." Epworth League at 6 p. m. Topic, "Risen With Christ." One and all welcome to all services. Sunday school at 9 a. m.; general class at 2:30 p. m. Come and worship with us. D. P. HOLT, Pastor.

WM. R. ADKINS and Lettie Adkins came all the way from Elliott County, Kentucky, to Ashland to get married, and applied at the Probate office for a license. Answers to the usual questions developed the fact that William and Lettie were cousins, their fathers being brothers, and so no license was issued. The couple were sadly disappointed. Adkins, who is a widower, said that he didn't know there was any law to prevent cousins marrying. They departed much depressed.

THE doctors of the State are taking no small part in the litigation now in progress. Judge W. B. Fleming, late of Louisville, now of the construction branch of United States Treasury Department was at Frankfort yesterday to argue before the Governor the case of Dr. Kelley of Cincinnati. The latter makes professional visits to Lexington and Louisville. He was refused a certificate to practice in this State by the Board of Health, and appealed his case to the Governor. The latter has the case under consideration. Gen. Thomas E. Moss, of Paducah, is to argue the appealed case of Dr. Appleman, who considers that the State Board has been alike unjust to him in refusing him a certificate. Dr. Appleman makes professional visits to Maysville.

LABOR CONFERENCE ENDED.

Mahoning Valley Rolling Mills Sign the Union Scale.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 4.—After a two-days session three of the biggest rollingmill plants in the Mahoning valley, last night at 10 o'clock, signed the scale submitted by the National Finishers' union. The scale is practically the one agreed upon by the Amalgamated association, with the exception that it is perpetual, no time being set for its expiration. This eliminates the stoppage of the mills the 1st of July each year.

In case of dissatisfaction by either side a three months' written notice must be given. The members of the Amalgamated association are very much vexed to think that the manufacturers gave recognition to the Finishers' union. President Garland is in the city, but refused to be interviewed. The mills which have signed the agreement are the Union Iron and Steel company, the Andrews Brothers company and the Mahoning Valley Iron company. The finishing departments of these mills will be started just as soon as the iron markets warrant the operators in placing the plants in operation.

MURDER OR SUICIDE.

Life Insurance Policies Found on a Dead Man Will Be Resisted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—W. H. Colliard, a well known Cincinnati traveling man, fell or was thrown from a third-story window of the Dennison hotel, in this city, on the night of Oct. 12. His death was supposed to have been accidental. In his pockets were found accident insurance tickets amounting to $40,000. He was killed at 9 o'clock, and at midnight, three hours after, these policies would have run out.

It developed here Friday that the insurance companies interested are now investigating the case, with a view of proving that Colliard either met with foul play or deliberately threw himself from the window, and the payment of the policies will be resisted. The body has been exhumed, and some sensational developments are expected. Two wounds, one on the front and the other on the back of the head would seem to indicate that he was murdered, as both of them could not have been sustained in the fall.

IRON HALL AFFAIRS.

The Trouble May Be Settled During the Present Month.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—In the superior court yesterday County Treasurer S. R. Holt, through his attorney, filed a demurrer to the answer of James F. Failey, receiver of the Iron Hall, to a petition of S. R. Holt for $15,000, the amount of taxes due from the order on the money in possession of the order during 1891 and 1892.

The receiver claimed that the county assessor has no right to assess property as omitted property, after the matter has been investigated by the board of review and that the order has the right to offset its indebtedness against the money on hand.

To these facts the petitioner demurs, asserting the facts alleged in the answer of the receiver are not sufficient to constitute a case. It is expected that the Iron Hall troubles will finally be disposed of during the present month.

He Got a Verdict.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Nov. 4.—A. B. Gilmore, formerly agent of the Terminal Railway company here, brought suit under the statute fixing 10 hours a day against the company to recover $523.28 for overtime, claiming that he often worked 15 hours a day and on Sunday. The case was tried before Judge Driggs, and Gilmore got a verdict for the full amount.

Tannery and Residence Burned.

ATHENS, O., Nov. 4.—The Athens tannery and the residence of E. Rohrkasz, its proprietor, were completely destroyed by fire. The origin of the fire is unknown. Loss about $16,000; partially insured. Robert Arshcott was seriously burned about the face and arms.

Met a Terrible Death.

FORT WAYNE, Nov. 4.—While cleaning a gun preparatory to going hunting August F. Fuestal met with a terrible death. The gun exploded and blew the top off Mr. Fuestal's head, part of the skull and brains being scattered all over the floor.

Overdose of Morphine.

FORT WAYNE, Nov. 4.—Dr. G. N. Worley, a prominent physician of Williamsport, this county, died from the effects of an overdose of morphine. It is supposed he committed suicide. A wife and three children survive him.

Switchman Ground to Pieces.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—Thomas Branson, a switchman, jumped from an engine and was ground to pieces by an engine coming in the opposite direction.

Train Drew Powerless.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 4.—Seventy-five unemployed men arrived here from California by the Southern Pacific freight train, the crew being unable to prevent their passage. They marched to the city hall, where they were fed by the city marshal.

Attempted Arson.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 4.—An attempt was made about 1 o'clock this morning to set fire to the Harvard grand stand, just erected for the forthcoming Yale-Harvard foot ball game on Hampden park. A bundle of straw and a lighted candle were used but the scheme failed.

Motorman Responsible.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—The coroner's jury investigating the Madison street drawbridge disaster found that Motorman E. F. Terry was grossly negligent in allowing the car to run across the bridge at an excessive and reckless rate of speed.

Was a Failure.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—The convention of the Fourth Pool miners at Coal Center, Pa., to protest against the reduction in the mining rates, was a failure. Only 10 mines were represented and the convention adjourned.

EXTENT OF THE BATTLE.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to The Daily Times from Fort Victoria says: From native runners it appears that the Matabeles lost 200 men in the skirmishing on the march, 1,500 in the battle at the Lager and 250 in the fighting on the following day.

News respecting the capture of Buluwayo is awaited with some anxiety, as it could scarcely have been accomplished without severe fighting. The report appears to be confirmed that a considerable loyal force retreated with Lo Bengula. Major Forbes' men since the big fight have captured over 1,000 cattle which belonged to the Matabeles.
